With a long tradition of strong productions of Agatha Christie's plays, the Genesian Theatre is thrilled to bring one of her most famous mysteries to the non-professional Sydney stage for the first time to celebrate its 60th season in the West End.

It's a dark, snowy evening at Monkswell Manor as Mollie and Giles prepare to receive their paying guests. A radio newsflash - a desperate murderer is on the run. The guests arrive. The trap is set...

Remember, once you've seen the show, you're not allowed to tell anybody whodunnit!
